

THE EMPORIUM

---

Welcome in...

Are you ready to be taken on a journey around the world with our hand picked wines? Sure you are. Our knowledgeable staff will help you make the right choice.

Here at the Emporium we look after you, that's why every single bottled has been sought, tasted, valued and then, chosen. We look for wines that are, in terms of style, representative of their origins. We always try to offer an exceptional value for money.

Our Cocktail list is a mix of Old and New school, so, if you are a fan of a Negroni or you are looking forward to try one of our signatures, our bartenders will make sure you'll get what you need.

Feel like you haven't finished yet? No problem, we will make you complete your night in the best way possible. Either you like to sip on an aged whiskey or bourbon, or you just like your liqueur or amaro neat, or maybe finish with a cheeky affogato with the classic Frangelico, we can make it happen.

This and more is waiting for you here at The Emporium, ready to discover the world of drinks?

*“Why wine matters?
Perhaps it is this: I love wine because it is one of the last true things. In a world digitized to distraction, a world where you can't get out of your pajamas without your cell phone, wine remains utterly primary. Unrushed. The silent music of nature. For eight thousand years, vines clutching the earth have thrust themselves upward toward the sun and given us juicy berries, and ultimately wine. In every sip taken in the present, we drink in the past - the moment in time when those berries were picked; a moment gone but recaptured - and so vivid that our bond with nature is welded deep.
Wine matters because of this ineluctable connection. Wine and food cradle us in our own communal humanity.[...] Drinking wine then - as small as that action can seem - is both grounding and transformative. It reminds us of other things that matter, too: love, friendship, generosity.”*
